CALL 2022

The University of Split holds Erasmus Charter for Higher Education (2021-2027).

Within the ERASMUS+ Project 2022-1-HR01-KA171-HED-000077839 referring to cooperation with higher education institutions in the partner countries, the University of Split announces the Call for applications for awarding financial supports to individual student mobilities, the objective of which is studying at a selected partner higher education institution (further in the text: HEI) in a partner country. All incoming and outgoing activities supported within this call are coordinated and administered by the University of Split.

Purpose of the Call

The main purposes of this call are:

- study periods: this activity allows students to study abroad at a partner higher education institution (HEI);

Eligible period for realization of mobility for STUDENTS approved within this call is: from the beginning of the summer semester 2024 – 15 July 2025

In the framework of the Erasmus+ Programme, all student mobility activities are conditional upon signing an inter-institutional agreement between the sending and the receiving universities before the start of the mobility.

NOTES:

- UNIST shall update a list of available bilateral agreements at the beginning of each month
- Please keep in mind that at the University of Split each bilateral agreement is assigned to a specific field of study/ department (and not an entire faculty).
- APPLICATION PERIOD is open until all available mobility places are reserved.

Minimum application requirements for student mobility at the University of Split:

1. Erasmus+ Application Form for Student Mobility
2. Application form for the additional financial support for inclusion
3. CV Europass
4. Transcript of Records verified from the Home University, translated into English, with clear grading system explanation
5. Motivation letter in English
6. Proof of English language proficiency (Certificate of language schools or transcript of records or certificate of high school)
7. Learning Agreement signed by the home institution
8. Consent form to publish personal data

All application documents shall be prepared in English language and shall be typed (not hand-written). Complete applications shall be scanned / converted into one .pdf document and sent electronically to the address: erasmus@unist.hr ; ana.marinovic@unist.hr

By submitting the application to this call, all applicants agree that University of Split publishes their personal data on the web page within the selection procedures and further uses their personal data for the purposes of administration procedures and reporting.

Each incoming participant is obliged to take care of their travel arrangements, health insurance and accommodation at the host University of Split.

Important:

- Scholarships under the Erasmus+ Partner Countries (KA171) programme are not compatible with any other Erasmus+ scholarships granted for the same exchange mobility.

INCLUSION SUPPORT

Predefined categories of incoming students that are eligible for the top-up for students with fewer opportunities:

PREDIFINED CATEGORIES	ADDITIONAL INFORMATION	SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS
Students with lower socio-economic status	A student is a recipient of state social benefit	- certificate confirming that a student is a recipient of state social benefit
Students with a status of a refugee, an asylum seeker or a migrant		Decision on granting asylum or subsidiary protection; - residency permit. In addition, it is important to be able to prove one's identity in the form of: - asylum seeker travel document; - special passport for foreigners; - another identity document.
Students with inclusion support	Students with special needs whose physical, mental or health-related condition is such that their participation in the project/mobility activity would not be possible without extra financial or additional support	Certificate issued by a general practitioner or a specialist doctor (the original document is requested, not older than 6 months) and the decision of the competent institution/state body showing the percentage and type of disability (copy, if applicable).

Application procedure

All application documents shall be scanned, converted into one .pdf document and sent electronically to the address: erasmus@unist.hr

Incomplete applications or applications received after the deadline will not be eligible for the evaluation process.

Application deadline for the summer semester of the academic year 2023/2024 is 1st of November 2023.

After the application deadline, once all the applications are collected, the University of Split will send them to partner universities for ranking.

Upon completing the ranking procedure, partner universities will nominate the selected candidates to the University of Split (in case of more applications than scholarships available, lists will include waiting list as well).

The University of Split will confirm mobility of the selected candidates at its earliest convenience and not later than 4 weeks upon receipt of the ranking made by the home universities.

Criteria for evaluation

The selection process will evaluate the applicants and will prioritize candidates according to the established criteria and budgetary availability.

The selection process will be based on the principles of equity, fairness and transparency.

In case of International Credit Mobility, the first criterion for selecting candidates must be academic merit.

Rights of the beneficiary

- To receive the scholarship according to the amounts set out in the Erasmus+ Programme guidelines. The expenses not covered by the scholarship will be borne by the beneficiary.
- To receive information and advice on the application procedure, as well as pre-departure and on-site guidance.
- To have the teaching and training period abroad recognized by the sending university.
